SAN ANTONIO.

Mrs. L. Rosenberg announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Lillie, to B. M. Jacobs, of Luling.

Mrs. Morris Kaliff left Saturday for Houston, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. J. H. Solomon.

Mr. Abe Rosenstein of Fort Worth is in the city for a few days, visiting relatives.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kelfer, 1405 Burnett street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Thursday evening, when their daughter, Sarah, was united in marriage with Ben Mindes. Rabbi N. Solomon performed the marriage ceremony, and Mrs. M. Kaliff sang "At Dawn-ing," accompanied by Miss Rose Solomon. Miss Solomon also played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The groom with his mother, Mrs. S. Burg, led the bridal procession, followed by Miss Elsie Cohen and Mr. Milton Bergel; Miss Lillie Sandfield and Mr. Morris Kelfer; Mrs. Louis Kelfer and Mr. S. Burg. Little Misses Rose Kelfer and Lillie Rosenthal, the flower girls, preceded the bride, who entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Louis Kelfer.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white duchess satin. The tight fitting bodice was trimmed with the same lace, draped in cascade effect at the sides and caught with sprays of orange blossoms. The long court train was fashioned of duchess satin and real lace and fell from sprays of orange blossoms on the shoulders. The bridal veil of tulle and real lace caught to the coiffure with a flare of real lace arranged in Spanish comb effect with orange blossoms and pearls. A shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley completed the dressing. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in pink satin trimmed in orange blossoms. They carried arm bouquets of pink roses. The little flower girls wore blue and white chiffon frocks and carried baskets of pink roses. Mrs. Burg wore a gown of Spanish lace and jet over black satin. Mrs. Kelfer's gown was of black lace and satin with jet trimmings.

After the ceremony a reception was held. The lawn was strung with brilliantly colored Japanese lanterns, where a stringed orchestra stationed furnished music for dancing, while the drawing room and reception rooms were lavishly decorated in palms, ferns and roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Mindes left Friday morning for St. Louis, where they will visit before going to other eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Goodstein of Austin are visiting friends and relatives. They will remain about three weeks.

Among the charter members of the Albert Pike Chapter, Order De Molay, recently instituted in San Antonio, are Messrs. Morris Kelfer, David B. Baxt, Milton Weinfelt, Leon A. Tobias, Myron J. Fink, Israel J. Coin, Horace D. Coin, John B. Josephson and Wolford L. Curinski.

A delightful birthday party was given at the home of Bernard Segal last week. Bunco was enjoyed throughout the evening, prizes falling to Miss Sarah Leberman and Mr. Harry Reich. Those attending the party were Misses Rebecca Feinsilber, Libby Carb, Mildred Scharlack, Molly Segal, Justine Segal, Sophie Feller, Rita Carb, and Messrs. Dave Rosenberg, Harry Reich, Clem Evans, Melvin Wolf, and Morris Wise.

Miss Dolly Wolfson is at the P. & S. Hospital, where she is recuperating from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. I. Arbettor, accompanied by Mr. Sol Scharlack, left last week for a camping trip. They will be gone several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Hahn announce the marriage of their daughter, Tillye, to Ben Adler. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of a few friends and immediate family. Mr. and Mrs. Adler left for an extended trip throughout the northern states.

Miss Libbie Feichenbaum of Austin is visiting in this city.

Misses Rose and Sadie Weisner of Houston, who have been the charming house guests of Miss Dora Ginsberg, have returned to their home in Houston.

Miss Rose Harris left last week for Leadwood, Mo., where she will be the guest of her sister.

The Alpha Chapter of the Iota Kappa Chi held a regular meeting last Wednesday night. All plans for the coming convention were laid out, and following the business session, election of officers was held. Mr. Louis Scharlack was elected president; Mr. Pacey I. Karotkin, vice-president; Mr. Ben Anton, secretary; Mr. Abe I. Schrotter, treasurer; Mr. Sidney Seaman, reporter; Mr. Harry Coin, sergeant-at-arms. Messrs. Louis Scharlack, Ben Anton and Phillip Wise were elected delegates to the I. K. X. convention.

Misses Freida and Esther Lapidus have returned home, after a month's visit to coast points.

Mr. Max Roseman is recovering from an operations for tonsils.

File number being 19269, then and there to answer the petition of Guaranty State Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, a corporation, filed in said Court, on the 29th day of June A. D. 1921, against the said L. C. Wilson and alleging in substance as follows, to-wit: On or about January 5th, 1921, defendant purchased a certain automobile described as being one Ford touring car Motor No. 45-70774 from Reeder Motor Co., Fort Worth, Texas, and made a partial cash payment on same, but the major purchase price was by arrangement between L. C. Wilson and said Reeder Motor Co., and plaintiff to be paid in 12 promissory notes each in the sum of $33.65 due one each month thereafter until all of said sum be paid. Plaintiff paid to Reeder Motor Co., the balance of purchase price and became subrogated to all the rights of said company as vendor of said automobile. Defendant executed a chattel mortgage covering said car to plaintiff to secure the payment of said notes.

That defendant has entirely failed and refused to pay said notes except one due February 1, 1921, and has wholly failed to carry out his part of said contract and plaintiff prays for rescission of said contract and to take back said automobile. That said car is of the value of $350.00.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that it recover possession and title to said automobile, for costs of suit and for any other relief, special and general, in law and in equity, to which it may be justly entitled.
